LINCOLN M. SMITH

SMITH FAMILY

We start our Smith Family some 194 years ago with Daniel Smith, who was of German descent and born in Pennsylvania. Daniel married a woman by the name of Elizabeth, who was also born in Pennsylvania. I do not know what Elizabeth's maiden name was, however on her daughter Ann Marie (Smith) Stamets death certificate listed in DeKalb County records, a M. Shultz was listed.

Daniel and Elizabeth Smith were the parents of six children, four sons and two daughters. I do not have names for two of the children, but can give the names of the remaining four. Daniel and Elizabeth Smith was living in York County, Pennsylvania when their son William L. Smith was born September 25, 1818. It is my thought that William L. was the eldest child, with the following children named there after according to birth year. William L. Smith born September 25, 1818, York County, Pennsylvania, Daniel Smith born March 31, 1824, York County, Pennsylvania, Andrew Smith born September 1828, York County, Pennsylvania, Ann M. born October 12, 1834, Ashland County, Ohio.

Daniel and Elizabeth and their children lived in Pennsylvania until sometime before October 1834, when the family moved to Ashland County, Ohio. On September 12, 1850, Daniel and Elizabeth lived in Vermillion Township, Ashland County, Ohio near Hayesville. Daniel was a farmer and the worth of his property at that time, was $10,000. The children still living at home at that time, was Andrew and Ann M. They also had two other people living with them, a man 75 and a male child 12 years.

The son William L. Smith, married Angeline Andrews October 22, 1840 in Ohio. William and Angeline had seven children, three sons and four daughters. On September 13, 1850, William lived in Vermillion Township in Ashland County, Ohio. At that time, William was a Clothier and had the following children: Melissa A. born 1841, Amanda born 1844 or 45, Mary born 1847 or 1848. And in 1860, William Smith had a son Fremont D. born 1856. In 1864, William L. Smith with his family moved on a farm in Butler Township, later Keyser Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, where he lived until the spring of 1867. William then went to Auburn and kept hotel, and again in 1870, returned to his farm where he lived until his death. William L. Smith was a kind husband and father and a faithful Christian. He was a faithful member of the Dunkard Church. William L. Smith died January 4, 1892 at age 73 years 3 months 10 days and his wife Angeline (Andrews) Smith died February 5, 1893 aged 73 years. Both are buried in the Evergreen Cemetery, Union Township, Auburn, Indiana (Union Street).

Melissa A. Smith, eldest child of William L. and Angeline Smith married in 1862 in Ashland County, Ohio to David Hough, who was born May 1833 in Ohio. David and Melissa A. (Smith) Hough had nine children, with seven living in June of 1900. Only can name three of their children. Mary born September 28, 1863, Ashland County, Ohio, William Frank Hough born June 2, 1869, Indiana, Samuel C. Hough born September 1870, Indiana.

David Hough was a farmer in Keyser Township in DeKalb County, Indiana in 1900. David Hough died March 5, 1914 and do not have a death date for Melissa. David and Melissa (Smith) Hough are buried in Block 6, Woodlawn Cemetery, Auburn, Indiana.

Mary Hough, eldest child of David and Melissa Hough married a man by the name of Matheny and is buried in the Matheny Mausoleum in Woodlawn Cemetery, Auburn, Indiana.

William Frank Hough married Almeda Smith born November 1880 on August 21, 1897. She was the daughter of Daniel Kramer Smith. William Frank and Almeda (Smith) Hough had a son Ralph V. Hough born January 1898 and died July 2, 1918, aged 20 years. Ralph is buried in Block 13, Woodlawn Cemetery, Auburn, Indiana beside his mother. William Frank Hough was a farmer in Keyser Township in 1900. William Frank Hough died February 9, 1901 and is buried in Block 6, Woodlawn Cemetery, Auburn, Indiana beside his parents.

Samuel C. Hough married Minnie May Crouse born February 1883 on November 26, 1899 in DeKalb County, Indiana. Samuel was a Railroad Laborer. Samuel and Minnie May had three children I know of. Harriet Hough born 1900, Indiana, Walter Hough born 1902, Glenn E. Hough born November 8, 1911, Glen Ullin, South Dakota, Morton County. Samuel and Minnie Hough as I understand and was told by Glenn Hough, moved all their belongings by train to Glen Ullin, South Dakota before November 8, 1911, as Glenn was born at that time. Glenn said he was named after the town of Glen Ullin. The family later moved back to DeKalb County. Samuel C. Hough died in 1917 and Minnie May (Crouse) Hough died in 1935. Both are buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Auburn, Indiana. Glenn Everett Hough married Thelma M. Lowe, who was born April 2, 1911 in Cleveland, Ohio. Glenn and Thelma Hough made their home in Auburn and lived on Sprott Street and across the alley from Ed and Wanda Smith. The Hough's become good friends of Ed and Wanda and learned many years later that Glenn was related to the Smith Family. Thelma died January 25, 1985 and is buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Auburn, Indiana beside Samuel C. and Minnie May Hough. Glenn Hough resides at the Irene Byron Health Care Center as of July 1987. There were no children born to Glenn and Thelma Hough. Walter Hough, brother of Glenn, had a son Robert Hough, who lives in Ft. Wayne, Indiana and is employed by the Sheriff's Department.

Fremont D. Smith married an Emma S. Miller born 1858. They had three daughters: Effie M. born June 20, 1882, Nellie G. born February 18, 1884, Ada I. born July 2, 1887. Fremont D. Smith was a farmer, and his farm was located on the east side of the north bound lane of Interstate 69 and across from the Ashton Smith farm. Fremont's first wife died in the year 1888. He then married Flora T. (Shull) Shumk or Shunk August 24, 1890 in DeKalb County, Indiana. Fremont D. Smith died in the year 1929 and his wife Flora in the year 1916. Fremont and both of his wives are buried in the Evergreen Cemetery, Union Township, DeKalb County (Union Street) beside his parents.

Effie M. Smith, the eldest daughter of Fremont D. Smith married Orville J. Wise, on March 1, 1903 and Effie died August 31, 1971. Nellie G. Smith married Dayton E. Rowe on May 6, 1914 and had a son Lloyd Rowe. Ada I. Smith married Pearl A. Barton born September 11, 1880 on March 17, 1904. Pearl A. Barton was the Grandson of Rev. James Barton, pastor of the Dunkard Church. Pearl and Ada (Smith) Barton had a daughter Effie, that married A. J. Witt. Pearl and his wife Ada were farmers all their married lives. They purchased Ada's father Fremont's farm and lived there. Pearl Barton died February 4, 1958 and his wife Ada died August 8, 1970. Pearl and Ada Barton are buried in the Christian Union Cemetery, Richland Township, DeKalb County, Indiana.

Daniel Smith, son of Daniel Smith and brother to William L., Andrew, and Ann M. (Smith) Staments, was born March 31, 1824 in Pennsylvania. Daniel grew to adulthood in Ashland County, Ohio and married Rosanna B. Eckelberger born January 4, 1824 on April 29, 1847 in Ashland County. On September 12, 1850, Daniel and Rosanna was living in Vermillion Township, Ashland County, Ohio. Daniel was a Miller. Daniel and Rosanna had seven children up to the 1870 census. The names I have for their children are: John L. born 1848, Samuel born 1850, Elizabeth C. born 1852, Alice A. born 1854 or 1855, Male born 1857 or 1858 (could not read name), Clara E. born 1860 or 1861, Frank S. born 1864 or 1865.

Daniel and Rosanna B. (Eckelberger) Smith never left Ohio as did his two brothers and sister. Daniel Smith died November 18, 1913 and his wife Rosanna died July 30, 1889. Their one son Samuel died June 3, 1853 aged 3 years 3 months 21 days. Daniel, Rosanna and son Samuel are buried in the Eckley Cemetery (oldest Ashland County, Ohio Cemetery), located S W ¼ Section 1 Township 21 Range 16 3/8 mile South of County Highway 1754 and ½ mile west of County Highway 555.

At this point of the history, I want to say, that I found also in the Eckley Cemetery records for Ashland County, a Daniel Smith who died March 21, 1875 with an age listed as 62 years 2 months 23 days. It is possible that the 62 was an error in the book, and should have been 82 years. The reason for thinking this, is there was also an Elizabeth Smith who died November 15, 1853 at age 59 years 10 months 5 days.

In Ann M. (Smith) Stamets obituary, it stated she matured to womanhood and then her mother and one brother died. At the time of the death of the Elizabeth listed for 1853, Ann M. Smith would have been 19. So in all probability the Daniel and Elizabeth listed in the Eckley Cemetery, are the parents of our Smith decendants.

Andrew Smith born September 1828 in York County, Pennsylvania moved to Ashland County, Ohio with his parents sisters and brothers in the year 1834. Andrew grew to manhood in Ashland County, met and married Mary M. Kramer born January 9, 1829 in Centre County, Pennsylvania on December 26, 1850. Her parents was M. Wines and Eliza Putt as listed in DeKalb County records. Confused? So am I. Don't know where the Kramer come in, unless her mother was married twice or more.

Andrew Smith Homestead in 1931.

Mary M. (Kramer) Smith

Andrew and Mary after their marriage lived in Vermillion Township, with a P.O. Box Hayesville in July 21, 1860. At that time, Andrew was a farmer and his property valued at $4500.00. Do not know if Andrew owned land in Ohio before his move to Indiana. Andrew and Mary (Kramer) Smith had five children born to them. Namely: Theodore Allen born September 22, 1853, Dennison R. born in 1855 died at an early age, Daniel Kramer born January 8, 1859, Lincoln McClellan born September 26, 1861, Clara born 1869 and died in infancy. All of Andrew and Mary's children was born in Ashland County, Ohio, with the exception of Clara.

Andrew and his family lived in Ashland County until the spring of 1863, when they moved to DeKalb County, Indiana. Andrew and Mary settled on a farm of 211 and 95 hundredths acres in Butler Township, which part of later in 1876 become Keyser Township. Andrew's farm then become situated in Keyser township. The acreage was purchased on March 9, 1863 from Samuel W. and Sarah Jane Sprott for the sum of $4,170.00. The southwest quarter of section one of the acres in the southwest corner was deeded to the Trustees of the Township for school purposes. Also there was a right of way set aside on Andrew's property for the Northern Indiana and Logansport Railroad if it should ever be built.

On April 20, 1878, H. Irvine Keyser, Trustee of the Baltimore and Ohio Land and Improvement Company, deeded one of the first lots in the town of Garrett to Andrew Smith for the sum of $400 dollars. It was lot number sixteen (16) in block number eighteen (18) as shown on the plat of said town, recorded in the office of the Recorder of said county, in the records of plats, volume No. 2 page 72.

Then on June 6, 1879, Andrew and Mary Smith deeded the lot in the town of Garrett to their eldest son Theodore Allen for the sum of $350 dollars. On this lot, was built a bakery, The Star Bakery.

It was after Andrew come to DeKalb County, that his brother William and sister Ann M. (Smith) Stamets decided to follow their brother and come to DeKalb County to seek a new and better future. After coming to DeKalb County, Andrew farmed and also had a sawmill, to which he lost one arm. How much of the arm, is a question. At age 16, Mary Smith was taken into the German Lutheran Church, but later, Mary and Andrew become members of the Dunkard Brethren Church, and then the Progressive Church, both located at the Auburn Junction in their time.

Andrew and Mary lived out their lives on the farm in DeKalb County, with Andrew dying of kidney and bowel trouble after a four week illness on May 8, 1908 at age 79 years 3 months ? days. After the death of Andrew, and in 1910, Mary Smith was still living on the homestead.

Mary (Kramer) Smith died March 11, 1919 at age 90 years 2 months 2 days. Andrew, Mary and the daughter Clara are buried in the Evergreen Cemetery, Union Township, Auburn, Indiana (Union Street). Andrew Smith was well known throughout the community and universally respected.

Theodore Allen Smith or T. A. Smith as he was called, the eldest child of Andrew and Mary (Kramer) Smith married Esther Imler born in the year 1853 to Frederick Imler and Elizabeth Ober on November 19, 1871 in DeKalb County, Indiana. Theodore and Esther had two children born to them. Calvin D. born 1873 and Cora Belle born 1878 and died at age 7 months. Cora Belle is buried in the Evergreen Cemetery beside her Grandparents Andrew and Mary. Theodore and his family lived on farms in the vicinity of Garrett, until Garrett was founded in 1874. Theodore erected the third building in the new town and established a bakery, The Star Bakery. The building was a frame structure that occupied the lot where the old American Legion Home was in Garrett at 108 North Randolph Street. In 1901, T. A. Smith and his brother-in-law, Wilson Swihart put up the building at 214 and 216 South Randolph Street that was occupied by the Mutual Jobbing Co. and the Northern Indiana Fuel & Light Co. T. A. had his bakery in the north room and Mr. Swihart a grocery in the south room. T. A. Smith retired in 1910. He was one of the first members of the Garrett Methodist Church and was a member of Garrett City Lodge, F. & A. M. more than a half century.

Randolph Street in Garrett, Indiana. The house in later years, was known as White Haven, a rooming house. Esther (Imler) Smith died January 3, 1931 at age 78 years. CEF phone ministry successful

By YVONNE PASKE

Although Child Evangelism Fellowship is for children, it is far from its infancy in DeKalb County.

Established in 1954 by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose of Auburn, CEF has supplied religious instruction to area children for 22 years, through weekly Good News Club meetings in individual homes.

This past November, the national organization's Tel-a-story ministry came to DeKalb County, and judging from the number of calls received so far, it has been enthusiastically received.

Children may call 925-6126 for a three-minute Bible story. After the story, they are given another phone number to call for follow-up counseling, if they desire it. Over 1,000 calls have been received since Tel-a-story's inception, said Joan Ramsey, CEF teacher instructor.

Stories are taped and stored in a device that works like an answering machine. When a child calls, he hears a pre-recorded story. Story tapes are changed every other day to keep them fresh, she said.

Counselors receive follow-up calls in their homes, and donate their time on a volunteer basis. In Auburn, Ethel Smith and Katherine Souder receive calls from children, and Miriam Jeffers and Leta Searfoss answer calls in Butler.

Children who call a counselor are also offered a free Bible correspondence course through the mail, and 24 have been sent out so far, Ramsey said.

Tickets with the Tel-a-story number on them are left in churches, laundromats, cooperating restaurants and Higley Book Store in Butler. "We really need to get them into the schools," Ramsey observed.

She hopes CEF's new director, Rev. Wayne Sutton, working with local ministers, can bring the program to the public's attention. Sutton assumed his position in January.

"Some children just call to talk to someone," Mrs. Smith said. "Others call back from time to time to have a chat and keep in touch, and that's always nice," she smiled.

CEF is now busy arranging for a machine with phone hook-up to be installed in Steuben County, so children there can also take advantage of Tel-a-story.

In Auburn, CEF's office is located at 708 S. Van Buren St., phone 925-3493.

for many years at Bell Telephone. Elmer Leslie John is buried in Roselawn Cemetery, Union Township, DeKalb County, Indiana. Mildred John and Ethel Smith live together sharing their retirement years. Both are active in the Missionary Church and do kind deeds for many.

Ann Marie (Smith) Stamets, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth Smith and sister of Andrew grew to womanhood in Ashland County, Ohio. After reaching womanhood, Ann Marie's mother and one brother died. At nineteen years of age, she became an ardent Christian in membership in the Evangelical Lutheran Church. Ann remained a close and devotive companion to her father until she united in marriage to Jacob Stamets on October 29, 1857 in Ashland County. Soon after their marriage, Jacob and Ann located in Rowsburg, Ohio, Ashland County. To them was born a son William and a daughter Sina. In 1863, they migrated to DeKalb County, Indiana and together they purchased the farm in Jackson Township, which with ardent toil cleared to enjoy, their well located farm in their old age. It was after they migrated to Indiana, that they added another daughter Clara, and three sons: John born October 18, 1866, Frank, and Zeanith to their family group. With one discord in their life, when death called from them on April 5, 1870, their three year old son John Smith Stamets. With the vicissitude and tender motherly cares of life the remaining family was reared with an early example to emulate the motherly affection instilled in her children. But as the break of usual home life gradually drew o'er, it was untimely shorn of a father, who died February 4, 1900, at the age of 68 years. And in the trend of worry also to follow, the gentle Savior called Ann on October 14, 1902, two days beyond her sixty-eighth milestone. At the time of Ann Marie (Smith) Stamets death, she had five children, two brothers and one sister surviving. Jacob, Ann Marie and their son Johnny Smith Stamets are buried in the Evergreen Cemetery, Union Township DeKalb County, Indiana (Located on Union Street, Auburn, Indiana.)

I have been told by Mrs. Orris Wise, who is related to the Stamets's, that Jacob and Ann Stamets once owned a hotel that was located at the Auburn Junction. The hotel was located near the B&O Railroad on the south side of County Road 48. In later years, the hotel was used as a home and was let to deteriorate and was torn down.

This concludes my story of the Smith Family, and I thank all who have helped. I hope you have enjoyed reading it. There maybe some mistakes, if so, I am sorry.

The Smith Family History was put together by Wanda (Baker) Smith for the Smith Family in 1987.
